BOOK REVIEWS

ISLANDS

The following are part of a beautiful series of books dealing with islands of the World. Twelve volumes have already been published, and several more are in preparation by David & Charles and Stackpole Books. The four listed here are available from the latter at Cameron & Kelker St., Harrisburg, Pa. 17105.

Grand Bahama by P. J. H. Barratt. 1972. 206 p., 33 photos, 2 maps, gazeteer, bibliography. $8.95.

The Falkland Islands by Ian J. Strange. 1972. 256 p., 29 photos, 4 maps, bibliography, with an excellent 34-page chapter on natural history. $8.95.

Corsica by Ian Thompson. 1972. 212 p., 25 photos, 9 maps, bibliography. $7.95.

Vancouver Island by S. W. Jackman. 1972. 212 p., 36 photos, 2 maps, bibliography. $7.95.

These books serve as excellent guides to many interesting and exciting islands. They would be of special interest to collectors, zoogeographers, or someone with just the urge to travel.—R. E. Woodruff
